
About the Minnesota Military Family Foundation

The Minnesota Military Family Foundation was started in November 2004 by ordinary people and continues to be a community supported fund. Contributions are made by people who understand that there are many sacrifices that military families make and want to soften the extraordinary financial hardships that may occur when a family member is deployed providing a financial safety net.

The Minnesota Military Family Foundation is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization and your donation is eligible for a tax deduction

What is the Mission of the MMFF?

To financially support deployed Minnesota military personnel, their spouse and children with cash grants during times of extraordinary financial hardship.

What does the Foundation do?

The Foundation works closely with the Family Assistance Centers (FAC). The FAC act as a filtering system for the MMFF and provide details of the financial need. Persons seeking assistance contact the FAC who verify information, evaluate the need and direct requests to the Foundation.
